"Navigating Markets, Commanding Skies: Building scalable ventures from the ground up."

My Interests

01. THE ART OF SELLING

Rooted in my childhood hustle and inspired by my late grandfather's business legacy, my passion for selling centers on the thrill of negotiation and the art of closing a deal. I turned this drive into real-world experience during high school by founding a photo and video business where I successfully pitched services and secured client contracts.

02. PLANE OBSESSION

Sparked by my first flight and a lifelong admiration for the Aircraft, my obsession with aviation spans from hands-on plane spotting and flight simulation to reading about global airline logistics. This interest reflects my deep fascination with aircraft design and the complex international operations that connect our world through the sky.
